

PROTECT MARRIAGE. PROTECT FAMILY.

Right now, Pennsylvanians have a short window of opportunity to preserve in law the union of one man and one woman. The Pennsylvania Marriage Protection Amendment is in the hands of the Pennsylvania legislature. If we are successful in amending our State Constitution, marriage in Pennsylvania will be limited to one man and one woman, thus preventing civil unions or other counterfeit forms of marriage.

The Marriage Protection Amendment Is Necessary.

It takes the issue out of the courts and lets Pennsylvanians decide the definition of marriage and safeguards state law from future legal challenges. Defining marriage in the Constitution is necessary to protect the Pennsylvania Defense of Marriage Act, which is similar to laws being struck down in other states by activist judges.

The Marriage Protection Amendment Protects Children.

No society, if it truly cares about the common good, will ever intentionally place its most innocent members in harm's way. No loving and compassionate society would intentionally deny children the best possible home, one with a mom and a dad.

The Marriage Protection Amendment Needs You to Get Involved.

The battle to protect marriage will not be easy. This constitutional amendment requires our state lawmakers to pass amendment legislation twice — once before July of this year and again in the 2007-2008 legislative session. Then "We, the People" must vote to approve it in a state-wide referendum in 2007 or 2008. Remember, your opinion and your vote matter. This is the first key step and you can make it happen!

- * Call or Write to your State Representative and State Senator to support House Bill 2381 and Senate Bill 1084 to protect marriage. (Use the CitizenActionCenter at www.pafamily.org or call the capitol switchboard at 717-787-9121)
- * Write a letter to the editor of your local newspaper in defense of one man, one woman marriage.
- * Pray for laws that protect God's design for marriage.

For More Information, visit www.PAMarriage.org

23 North Front Street
Harrisburg, PA 17101
(717) 545-0600

PROTECT MARRIAGE. PROTECT FAMILY.

Right now, Pennsylvanians have a short window of opportunity to preserve in law the union of one man and one woman. The Pennsylvania Marriage Protection Amendment is in the hands of the Pennsylvania legislature. If we are successful in amending our State Constitution, marriage in Pennsylvania will be limited to one man and one woman, thus preventing civil unions or other counterfeit forms of marriage.

The Marriage Protection Amendment Is Necessary.

It takes the issue out of the courts and lets Pennsylvanians decide the definition of marriage and safeguards state law from future legal challenges. Defining marriage in the Constitution is necessary to protect the Pennsylvania Defense of Marriage Act, which is similar to laws being struck down in other states by activist judges.

The Marriage Protection Amendment Protects Children.

No society, if it truly cares about the common good, will ever intentionally place its most innocent members in harm's way. No loving and compassionate society would intentionally deny children the best possible home, one with a mom and a dad.

The Marriage Protection Amendment Needs You to Get Involved.

The battle to protect marriage will not be easy. This constitutional amendment requires our state lawmakers to pass amendment legislation twice — once before July of this year and again in the 2007-2008 legislative session. Then "We, the People" must vote to approve it in a state-wide referendum in 2007 or 2008. Remember, your opinion and your vote matter. This is the first key step and you can make it happen!

- * Call or Write to your State Representative and State Senator to support House Bill 2381 and Senate Bill 1084 to protect marriage. (Use the CitizenActionCenter at www.pafamily.org or call the capitol switchboard at 717-787-9121)
- * Write a letter to the editor of your local newspaper in defense of one man, one woman marriage.
- * Pray for laws that protect God's design for marriage.

For More Information, visit www.PAMarriage.org

23 North Front Street
Harrisburg, PA 17101
(717) 545-0600

